

DRE License Denial, Suspension, and Revocation Hearings

ALL IS NOT LOST!!
LET'S REVIEW THE FACTS, PREPARE YOUR CASE, AND TELL YOUR SIDE OF THE STORY!!

Full Representation: CALL FOR INFORMATION ON RETAINERS

Don't hand over your hard earned real estate license without a fight, and don't give up if the DRE won't issue you a license. There is a big difference between having charges and allegations leveled against you and actually being guilty of those charges and allegations. The burden of proof required to take your license ("clear and convincing evidence") is higher than what is typically found in a Civil case ("preponderance of the evidence") and THE BURDEN IS ON THEM TO PROVE IT. In addition, there are statute of limitation requirements that must be complied with and which may work to your benefit – contact us to discuss. At any rate, you need to start preparing your case NOW. We need to speak with witnesses, review documents, and get ready to present your case with high impact and factual clarity.

Charges we defend:

- Real estate fraud
- Trust account issues
- Misrepresentation
- False promises
- Dishonest dealing
- License denials
- Appeals of adverse decisions (both the outcome, and if abuse of discretion, the penalty imposed)
