II. CORE VALUES

As a firm, the Law Office of Steven C. Vondran understands the importance of having integrity and maintaining a passion for our work. We have created a list of our Top Ten Core Values that we maintain in the practice of law and in handling your case. Here are our Values:

1. A lawyer is the advocate of the client and should do everything legally and ethically permissible to advance the causes of his/her client.

2. In the advocator's role, the lawyer should be as detailed as possible and explore every possible theory in advancing the Clients legitimate interests.

3. The above-mentioned efforts should be done as quickly and cost-effectively as possible, while still being thorough, and without incurring unnecessary legal bills.

4. Legal fees should be reasonable, and flat rate fees should be pursued wherever possible. When feasible, contingency case options should also be explored and discussed.

5. The Client is entitled to Superior Customer Service. This means communication about your case at every critical stage, and having your phone calls returned PROMPTLY. In addition, you are entitled to a copy of all documents sent and received in your case, including pleadings and correspondence from opposing attorneys, experts, and the Courts.

6. The client shall control the objectives of the representation while the attorney shall control the ways and means of legally and ethically achieving the Client's legitimate objectives.

7. We believe that lawyers have the obligation to be fully prepared when representing you. This means we cut no corners when it comes to conducting legal research or preparing your case for trial or in preparing to obtain zoning and entitlements on your behalf. There simply is no substitute for hard work, and in this business, the game is often won or lost in the details.

8. We truly believe that by working together to accomplish the legitimate objectives of the representation, and being as prepared and detailed as possible that we can be proud of the final results - of which we expect to be excellent!

9. That sometimes the case does not go your way and the law may not always be interpreted or applied in your favor. When feasible, we believe that the time, energy and costs to appeal an adverse legal decision is sometimes justified and worth the fight.

10. That frivolous lawsuits and legal tactics designed to harass, oppress, and bully have no place in the legal system and such cases and causes will not be advanced by our firm and will be vigorously opposed if perpetrated against our Clients.

B. Hourly Fees

In most cases we bill by the hour. Legal fees are negotiable. The rate depends upon the type of case and the complexity involved. In general, our hourly fee starts at $145/hour and increases to $195/hr. depending upon the complexity of the case. In the event an arbitration or trial is required our hourly fee is set at $195/hr. However, each case is different and you must contact us to discuss the unique characteristics of your case and the fee that will apply.

C. Contingency Fees

In certain litigation and arbitration cases, such as eminent domain, your case may be handled on a contingency basis. This means, we are not paid unless and until we win or collect a favorable settlement on your behalf. Contact us to see if your case warrants us taking the case on contingency.
